HELP SLOUGH FIREFIGHTERS SCRUB UP FOR CHARITY

Slough firefighters are holding a charity car wash at the fire station on Tuns Lane this Saturday (19 September).

Firefighters will be joined by their families, friends and colleagues to help raise as much money as possible. All of the money raised will be donated to the Fire Fighters Charity, which provides a range of services for fire service personnel and their families, including therapy and rehabilitation for injured firefighters, and the Royal British Legion, which helps serving and ex-Service personnel and their families.

Red Watch Manager Paul Whiting, organiser of the car wash, said: "Both charities do fantastic work supporting fire service and Service personnel and their families when they need it the most. We hope that lots of people will bring their cars along for a good wash and help us raise as much money as we can for these charities at the same time."

The car wash will take place from 10am-4pm this Saturday. The suggested minimum donation is £4 for cars.
