

PRIVACY NOTICE

General enquiries to Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service (RBFRS)

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service collects about you and how we store and use that data.

What information we collect about you

Contact details (Name, email address, telephone number, postal address)

Why we need it

When you contact us to make an enquiry, we collect information, including your personal data, so that we can respond to it and fulfil our statutory functions.

Our legal basis for processing

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we are able to process your personal data under article 6(1)(e) – Necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller and 6(1)(a) – Consent of the data subject.

If the information you provide us in relation to your enquiry contains special category data, such as health, religious or ethnic information the legal basis we rely on to process it is article 9(2)(g) of the GDPR, which also relates to our public task and the safeguarding of your fundamental rights, and Schedule 1 part 2(6) of the Data Protection Act (DPA) 2018 which relates to statutory and government purposes.

What we do with it

Your details will be passed to the department which is most appropriate to respond to your enquiry. They will then be recorded by that department, with any other relevant information that it collected from you, in order for them to respond to you properly.

Sharing your information

There are a number of reasons why we may share your information outside of our Service. This can be due to:

- Our obligations to comply with current legislation
- Our duty to comply with a Court Order
- You have consented to the sharing / disclosure

We may disclose information to other agencies without consent where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted under the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.

We work closely with other agencies, such as councils, health services, adult and children's services and may, for the purpose of preventing risk of harm to yourself or another an individual , share your personal information.

As a public authority, we are also subject to information rights legislation (Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and Data Protection legislation. We do receive requests for information, however, unless there is a legal obligation to provide your personal data, information will be released in a redacted form. This means your personal data will be removed before publication so that you cannot be identified.

Your personal information will not be transferred outside of the European Union (EU).

How long we keep it and how it is stored

We will only retain information for as long as necessary. Records are maintained in line with our retention schedule, which determines the length of time records should be kept. Consequently, personal information relating to:

General enquiries will be updated (where appropriate) and deleted/destroyed when no longer required.

We have a generic retention period of 3 years, however, each department will routinely delete /destroy unneeded personal information depending on the subject or type of enquiry. If it is felt that your personal information should be kept longer than the generic retention period, to ensure the details we hold are relevant and accurate, you will be contacted.

We take our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously. We are committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of personal data for which we are responsible, whether computerised or on paper. This means that your information will be kept in a secure environment and access to it will be restricted according to the 'need to know' principle. Personal details will then be destroyed/deleted.

We do compile and publish statistics showing certain information, but not in a form which identifies anyone.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Your rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation you are entitled to exercise your right to object to us processing your data and obtain information that is held about you.

If at any point you believe the information we process on you is incorrect, you can request to have it corrected or deleted. Where possible we will seek to comply with your request but we may be required to hold or process information to comply with a legal requirement.

If you wish to discuss the information we hold about you, make a complaint about how we have handled your personal data or object to us processing it, you can contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) who will investigate the matter.
