

PRIVACY NOTICE

Hydrants and Water information

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service collects about you and how we store and use that data.

What information we collect about you

Contact details (Name, address, telephone numbers, and email address) plus plans of buildings/roads/developments or planning applications and any other information that may be relevant to your enquiry/situation.

Why we need it

In order to fulfil our statutory obligations and deliver our services efficiently and effectively and provide necessary fire service cover. This will then allow the Operational Policy and Support team to contact you, in relation to hydrant inspections, billing, consultation or other water related enquiries.

Our legal basis for processing

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we are able to process your personal data under article 6(1)(e) – Necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller and in certain circumstances, article 6(1)(b) – Necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject or to take steps preparatory to such a contract, article 6(1) (a) with the consent of the data subject and 6(1)(c) – Necessary for compliance with a legal obligation.

(Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004, The Water Act 2003, Localism Act 2011, Planning Act 2008)

What we do with it

The information that you provide will be kept for securely within RBFRS secure network with access only by the Operational Policy and Support team. We will utilise the personal data to contact you in relation to inspections, billing, consultation or other water related enquiries.

Where we are providing a chargeable service, details will be passed to our Finance department for invoicing/billing.

Please refer to:

- Details and payments collected for paid services (special services) privacy notice
- Financial information relating to Suppliers and Customers of goods and services privacy notice

Sharing your information

Your details may be passed to the relevant water company for your area, if it is deemed necessary to assist in providing you with the appropriate service or answering enquiries.

There are a number of other reasons why we may share your information outside of our Service. This can be due to:

- Our obligations to comply with current legislation
- Our duty to comply with a Court Order
- You have consented to the sharing / disclosure

We may disclose information to other agencies without consent where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted under the General Data Protection Regulation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.

We work closely with other agencies, such as councils, health services, adult and children's services and may, for the purpose of preventing risk of harm to yourself or another an individual , share your personal information.

As a public authority, we are also subject to information rights legislation (Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and Data Protection legislation. We do receive requests for information, however, unless there is a legal obligation to provide your personal data, information will be released in a redacted form. This means your personal data will be removed before publication so that you cannot be identified.

Your personal information will not be transferred outside of the European Union (EU).

How long we keep it and how it is stored

We will only retain information for as long as necessary. Records are maintained in line with our retention schedule, which determines the length of time records should be kept. Consequently, personal information relating to Water and Hydrants will be retained by the Operational Policy and Support Team for up to 1 year or until the issue or enquiry is resolved.

Information collected and used by our Finance department for billing and account maintenance will be kept for 7 years.

We take our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously. We are committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of personal data for which we are responsible, whether computerised or on paper. This means that your information will be kept in a secure environment and access to it will be restricted according to the 'need to know' principle. Personal details will then be destroyed/deleted.

We do compile and publish statistics showing certain information, but not in a form which identifies anyone.
