

PRIVACY NOTICE

Corporate Meetings (including actions and decisions logs)

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service collects about you and how we store and use that data.

Personal data is processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

What information we collect about you

Name, telephone number, email address, organisation, job role, recruitment details (if relevant)

Why we need it

This information, allows us to maintain accurate details in order to contact you in the course of our normal working relationship with you, to ensure effective collaboration to support our statutory functions - this information is collected when individuals are submitting reports for specific actions during a meeting or in discussions around particular actions.

Our legal basis for processing

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), we are able to process your personal data under article 6(1)(e) necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller, and 6(1)(b) Necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject or to take steps preparatory to such a contract.

What we do with it

We will only use the data collected in regards to specific actions and decisions for a meeting. The Business Support Team will log these details and only disclose information to the attendees of that meeting.

Sharing your information

We will share the information with external partners who are members of the relevant meeting, for example

- Other Fire and Rescue Services
- Councillors from Berkshire / Oxfordshire / Buckinghamshire
- Thames Valley Police
- South Central Ambulance Service
- Dataplan
- West Yorkshire Pension Fund
- Capita
- Mott Macdonald
- Government departments

There are a number of reasons why we may share your information outside of our Service. This can be due to:

- Our obligations to comply with current legislation
- Our duty to comply with a Court Order
- You have consented to the sharing / disclosure

We may disclose information to other agencies without consent where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted under the UK General Data Protection Regulation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.

We work closely with other agencies, such as councils, health services, adult and children's services and may, for the purpose of preventing risk of harm to yourself or another an individual , share your personal information.

As a public authority, we are also subject to information rights legislation (Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and Data Protection legislation. We do receive requests for information, however, unless there is a legal obligation to provide your personal data, information will be released in a redacted form. This means your personal data will be removed before publication so that you cannot be identified.

Your personal information will not be transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA).

How long we keep it and how it is stored

We will only retain information for as long as necessary. Records are maintained in line with our retention schedule, which determines the length of time records should be kept.

Consequently, personal information relating to: Corporate Meetings including actions and decisions logs will be retained for ten (10) years.

We take our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously. We are committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of personal data for which we are responsible, whether computerised or on paper. This means that your information will be kept in a secure environment and access to it will be restricted according to the 'need to know' principle. Personal details will then be destroyed/deleted.

We do compile and publish statistics showing certain information, but not in a form which identifies anyone.

Your rights

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation you are entitled to exercise your right to object to us processing your data and obtain information that is held about you.

If at any point you believe the information we process on you is incorrect, you can request to have it corrected or deleted. Where possible we will seek to comply with your request but we may be required to hold or process information to comply with a legal requirement.

If you wish to discuss the information we hold about you, make a complaint about how we have handled your personal data or object to us processing it, you can contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) who will investigate the matter.
