

PRIVACY NOTICE

Requests for Incident Information and Incident Reports

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service collects about you and how we store and use that data.

Personal data is processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

What information we collect about you

Your contact details (your name and either your postal address, telephone number and/or email address), details of your enquiry and any other relevant information you feel may help us in dealing with your request.

Why we need it

We need to collect this information in order to provide you with a response to your enquiry and so that you may make a decision whether to purchase the appropriate report. Outcomes are also logged for monitoring purposes.

Our legal basis for processing

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), we are able to process your personal data under article 6(1)(b) (Necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject or to take steps preparatory to such a contract) and 6(1)(e) (Necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller: Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004).

What we do with it

We will only use the personal information we collect to process your enquiry and to check on the level of service we provide.

Your contact details are logged by the Information Governance Team and only the details of your request are sent to our Finance department once you have decided to purchase the report.

We do not usually disclose your identity to anyone else within the Service unless it will assist with answering your enquiry and providing you with the information you seek.

Sharing your information

There are a number of reasons why we may share your information outside of our Service. This can be due to:

- Our obligations to comply with current legislation
- Our duty to comply with a Court Order
- You have consented to the sharing / disclosure

We may disclose information to other agencies without consent where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted under the UK General Data Protection Regulation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.

We work closely with other agencies, such as councils, health services, adult and children's services and may, for the purpose of preventing risk of harm to yourself or another an individual , share your personal information.

As a public authority, we are also subject to information rights legislation (Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and Data Protection legislation. We do receive requests for information, however, unless there is a legal obligation to provide your personal data, information will be released in a redacted form. This means your personal data will be removed before publication so that you cannot be identified.

Your personal information will not be transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA).

How long we keep it and how it is stored

We will only retain information for as long as necessary. Records are maintained in line with our retention schedule, which determines the length of time records should be kept.

Consequently, personal information relating to: a request for Information will be retained for two financial years (plus the current year).

Details passed to our Finance department and collected by them in order to fulfil their obligations are retained for 7 years.

We take our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously. We are committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of personal data for which we are responsible, whether computerised or on paper. This means that your information will be kept in a secure environment and access to it will be restricted according to the 'need to know' principle. Personal details will then be destroyed/deleted.

We do compile and publish statistics showing certain information, but not in a form which identifies anyone.
