

Consultations Mailing List

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy statement explains what personal data Royal Berkshire Fire and Rescue Service collects about you and how we store and use that data.

Personal data is processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

What information we collect about you

When signing up to our Consultations Mailing List, we will ask if you are registering as an individual or business/organisation.

We will collect your name and contact email address or postal address if you prefer to receive updates by post.

There is also an option to indicate your local authority area within Berkshire.

You can update your contact details by emailing consultations@rbfrs.co.uk.

Why we need it

We will ask for your personal contact details so that we can notify you of our latest public consultations and offer you the opportunity to participate in them; you will be invited to share your views and opinions in many ways, including completing surveys, or attending discussion workshops and focus groups on a voluntary basis.

NOTE: Information about personal data collected when participating in consultations (for example surveys) will be detailed in the associated privacy notice – you can find these on our website under Privacy and Data Processing \(rbfrs.co.uk\).

Our legal basis for processing

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), we are able to process your personal data under article 6(1)(a) consent when you sign up to the Consultations Mailing List.

You can remove your consent at any time.

If you want to remove your consent, please click the unsubscribe link in our emails or email consultations@rbfrs.co.uk and we will deal with your request.

What we do with it

This information is recorded on our Consultations Mailing List, which is stored securely and maintained by the Corporate Services Team. This information is not shared outside of the organisation.

We will only use your personal information to process your request to be kept updated on our consultations and to offer you the opportunity to participate in them.

Providing your local authority area is optional; this information will help us monitor engagement numbers across Berkshire.

Sharing your information

There are a number of reasons why we may share your information outside of our Service. This can be due to:

- ✓ Our obligations to comply with current legislation
- ✓ Our duty to comply with a Court Order
- ✓ You have consented to the sharing / disclosure

We may disclose information to other agencies without consent where it is necessary, either to comply with a legal obligation, or where permitted under the UK General Data Protection Regulation, e.g. where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the prevention and/or detection of crime.

We work closely with other agencies, such as councils, health services, adult and children's services and may, for the purpose of preventing risk of harm to yourself or another individual, share your personal information.

As a public authority, we are also subject to information rights legislation (Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and Data Protection legislation). We do receive requests for information, however, unless there is a legal obligation to provide your personal data, information will be released in a redacted form. This means your personal data will be removed before publication so that you cannot be identified.

Your personal information will not be transferred outside of the European Economic Area (EEA).

How long we keep it and how it is stored

We will only retain information for as long as necessary. Records are maintained in line with our retention schedule, which determines the length of time records should be kept.

Consequently, personal information relating to the Consultations Mailing List will be retained for as long as there is a business need or until you remove your consent – unsubscribe from receiving consultation updates.

We take our duty to protect your personal information and confidentiality seriously. We are committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of personal data for which we are responsible, whether computerised or on paper. This means that your information will be kept in a secure environment and access to it will be restricted according to the 'need to know' principle. Personal details will then be destroyed/deleted.

We do compile and publish statistics showing certain information, but not in a form which identifies anyone.

Your rights

Under the data protection legislation, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information.

Where possible we will seek to comply with your request, but we may be required to hold or process information to comply with a legal requirement.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

If you wish to discuss the information we hold about you, make a complaint about how we have handled your personal data or object to us processing it, you can contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) who will investigate the matter.

Further information about your individual rights is available on the Information Commissioner's Office \(ICO\) website - for the public.
